

Building Regulations
 Part B2
 External escape stairs
 5.25 Where an external escape stair is provided in accordance with paragraph 4.44, it should meet the following provisions:
 d) any stair more than 6m in vertical extent is protected from the effects of adverse weather conditions. (This should not be taken to imply a full enclosure. Much will depend on the location of the stair and the degree of protection given to the stair by the building itself);
