

The door will be timber hand painted in a traditional finish in the same white paint colour as the existing door, to match the shopfront at 63 Endell Street.
The door knob will be retained, and the rest of the door furniture will be sympathetic to the character and appearance of the listed building.