CERTIFICATE C

I hereby certify that:

If you are not the owner of all the land to which the application relates, you should give notice in the following three cases:

- (a) If you know the names and addresses of all the owners of the land to which the application relates, you should give them notice in the form shown in Notice No. 1 below and complete certificate B overleaf.
- (b) If you know the names and addresses of some of the owners of the land to which the application relates, but not all of them, you should give the notice in the form shown in Notice No. 1 below to those whose names and addresses you know, and also give notice of the application in a local newspaper, in the form shown in Notice No. 2 below. The newspaper notice should be published not earlier than twenty days before the date of the application. You should then complete certificate C overleaf.
- (c) If you do not know the names and addresses of any of the owners of the land to which the application relates, you should give notice of the application in a local newspaper, in the form shown in Notice No. 2 below. This notice should be published not earlier than twenty days before the date of the application. You should then complete certificate D overleaf.

2. If the application does not relate to land any part of which is an agricultural holding, paragraph 2 of the certificate may be ignored. Should this not be so, notice has to be given to the tenant(s) of the holding(s) in the form shown in Notice No. 1 below and paragraph 3 should be completed and 2 struck out.

3. Any person who knowingly or recklessly issues a certificate which contains any statement which is false or misleading in a material particular is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding £100.
