2019/1812/P		24/05/2019 14:48:49	OBJ	It is a poor choice of location for a theatre and cafe where there will be a lot of people congregating. It is suitable for the High Street not a residential corner where there are no commercial premises. It is on a corner of a junction where there is a significant amount of traffic as people bypass the busy Hampstead high street traffic using Willow and Gayton Road as a through road. The premise itself is small therefore there will be several children outside the theatre on a very small pavement. This is a serious hazard and disaster in the making.
