2019/1147/P	Claudia Bennett	18/06/2019 22:07:25	OBJ	Erection of extension will come very close to boundary wall of no 5 Eton avenue and affect light and outlook. Garden room will change outlook of all neighbouring gardens and especially no 5 as will need to remove all current planting and erection of tall large brick wall will cause offence in conservation area. - see conservation details -
2019/1147/P	Susan Bennett	18/06/2019 21:57:09	OBJ	The planned garden building will completely change the outlook of the garden at no 5 Eton Avenue - and obstruct light and trees. destruction of evergreen plants and mean the conservation area of green has been polluted by the planned building of a 2.5 metre high brick wall. It will cause noise and light pollution where there is none. The owners of the coach house have already removed the wall between the gardens of no 3 Eton avenue and could already have a large garden building with lights
2019/1147/P	Florence Bennett	18/06/2019 22:03:46	OBJ	This is a conservation area of green and quiet gardens. The construction of a gym brick building at rear of garden will change the entire outlook of neighbouring gardens and cause light pollution. There is already a large garden building at no 3 Eton Avenue and the fence has been removed between what was the 2 gardens so there is room to build on the 3 Eton avenue left side away from no 5 Eton avenue. The current plan involves removing a lot of green foliage and would hinge the outlook for no 5. The extension of the coach house is too close to boundary wall and will affect light
