Dear Sir,

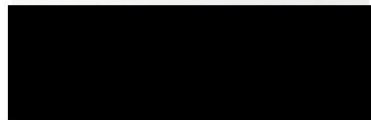

Re: Castlehaven Community Centre, 23 Castlehaven Road, London, NW1 8RU

We attach documents and drawings as a planning application for new signs to Castlehaven Community Centre. This application should be read in conjunction with an earlier application submitted on 29/05/19 via the Planning Portal, ref: PP-07888576v1, covering alterations to the windows and doors of the building. (Note that we have not yet received acknowledgement of this application from Camden but have confirmed via phone call that it has been received).

In order to be consistent we have included existing and proposed plans of the building with this application. These include the alterations covered by the earlier application.

We are slightly uncertain about the extent of signage that requires permission but have included all the elements on the drawings in order to be clear. Some of these replace existing signage and banners which will be removed. We have included some lighting, but this is intended to complement the existing external lights in order to highlight the lettering which will not itself be illuminated.

Yours sincerely,

Neil Fletcher
