

Pivot Doors make a design statement

Zen Pivot front doors

Ultra cool entrance doors

Zen Pivot doors are born from a contemporary architectural design idea and technological evolution to create a stunning range of pivot doors available in the UK.

The Zen Pivot range of doors pushes the boundaries for modern residential and industrial design, by providing versatility and customisation, while simultaneously adopting hi-tech and classic materials including carbon fibre to deliver an exceptional entrance door.

Carbon fibre pivot door

It is not by chance that carbon fiber is considered the "New Black" in modern design, its amazing strength to weight ratio and unique texture render it unique.

Originally used in the aerospace space industry and Formula One cars, it provides a new level of elegance and design for your home.
