Details of the pre-application advice received

The amendments were presented to LBC via the formal pre-application process during a meeting on the 09 January 2019, three pre-application documents were issued between December 2018 and March 2019. The documents introduced additional revisions to the scheme and were produced in part to address comments received from LBC during the pre-application meeting. In response to the comments received from Officers through the pre-application process, the scope of the proposed amendments to the development have been reduced, and the demolition and façade retention of the Betterton Street building is no longer proposed. Further details of the pre-application discussions undertaken are set out in the Planning Statement.
