|                 |                         |                     |                 | Printed on  | 23/07/2019 | 09:10:04 |
|-----------------|-------------------------|---------------------|-----------------|---|------------|----------|
| Application No: | Consultees Name: | Received:           | Comment: | Response:   |            |          |
| 2019/2251/P     | Hampstead CAAC          | 21/07/2019 12:51:22 | OBJ             | HCAAC queries the necessity of using aluminium-framed doors to the extension when timber would do as well |            |          |
|                 |                         |                     |                 | and fit better with the general timber-framed windows in the rear elevation.                              |            |          |