

Dar Sofie,
Many thanks for your's which I passed to colleagues, although I could not discern the exact amendment.
I have not had a response, but I believe our comment might not be critical in any case.
We therefore agree to withdraw HCAAC's comment/objection.
Best wishes,
John

Hi John,

Thank you for your email.

I've spoken with agent following your email and they've provided a revised drawing (see attached). I've discussed this with the Conservation Officer and they don't object. Can you confirm if your email was an objection or a comment and if you would like to withdraw this as they have revised the drawing? The Council would be putting it forward as an approval.

Kind regards,

Dear Sofie,

Re: Rear large glass areas to be divided up. Corner junction of the glazing is not liked compared with the existing and framed area enclosing the doors.
HCAAC asks for this detail to be revised.

Best regards,
John
