Hi Sunny,

Thanks for your email.

Unfortunately we can't amend decision notices once they have been finalised. The decision was issued in May 2019. I can confirm that the nature conservation officer suggested the installation of the starling boxes which is shown on the drawing no. A-07-P0701 that you have attached to your email. This email is a note of comfort that drawing no A-07-P0701 is accepted and agreed as the correct drawing number rather than the one shown on the decision notice (drawing no. A-07-P3000).

If you would like to formally amend the decision notice it would be necessary to submit another approval of details application with the correct drawings attached.

I hope that this helps.

Kind regards

Elaine

Hi Elaine,

I've noticed an error in the decision notice for this one. I believe when we sent the zoomed in version of the plan this was an older version and not updated in accordance with the revised Ecology Statement.

The correct drawing is attached (A-07-P0701).

Are you able to update the decision? Apologies for the confusion.

thanks
