

Modern Window Seats

With the use of strengthening interlayer within the glass components, no supporting steel work is required in these window boxes. Instead, the vertical and horizontal glass panels can be sealed together with structural silicone with the roof load being taken by the glass itself.

IQ Glass cane design these frameless 3D windows at various angles and sizes to create a modern version of a bay window.

Example of similar Oriel window →

