Details of the pre-application advice received

The advice that you were advised below is correct in that if you are advertising your stall or a product with branding it will require advertisement consent. The kiosk that you have is a semi-permanent building and any type of advertising on it to the scale that you are proposing with branding would require advertisement consent. Therefore you will require:

- Advertisement consent application form
- Planning fee of £110
- Site location plan with the subject site outlined in red to the scale of 1:1250
- Existing elevation drawing
- Proposed elevation drawing

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
