2019/5094/L	Jonathan Byatt	12/10/2019 08:15:53	SUPC	This appears a well thought out and carefully considered set of alterations. These changes will in large part retain and add in small ways to the period nature if these landmark buildings seen by the millions who use the Heath every year. In retaining the beauty and interest of the area I would offer a suggestion or request to help enhance the knowledge and interest if this unique piece of Hampstead life. Would the owners deem it appropriate to add a small plaque or similar testament to the side of the front gate which remembers the prior resident, Mr Noel Carrington, who founded Puffin books while resident. This would add some additional significance to the site without detracting from its character. This need not be a large 'blue plaque' style or similar. Merely a small plate with minimal content which matches the decor of the external boundary.
