2019/4741/P	Anastasia Russa	30/10/2019 22:14:05	COMMNT	I am a resident of London School of Mosaic - having an art studio in the basement. It would be really such a good idea to make the whole garage space at Ludham basement into a larger Mosaic School with artist studios. This would enable many more artists to work there and discuss their art practice. Of course, we (artists) want prices to stay the same. At the moment it is such a wonderful start, almost like an art production in itself, a social sculpture. The community is very warm and encourages supportive collaboration. There had been artist's studios at Gospel Oak and Belsize Park area in the past - Mall Studios. Barbara Hepworth, Ben Nicholson and even Mondrian were working there. Let's have the artist hub return to the area! It will humanise a posh district.....maybe?

2019/4741/P	Karen Till	30/10/2019 20:31:00	COMMNT	Looks really exciting, would certainly give a new lease of life to this gloomy space. Huge help with solving the refuse bin areas and overspill of rubbish on the garden areas. Really great idea, all for this.
2019/4741/P	Beto	30/10/2019 19:48:19	COMMNT	I think this the best thing to have in the area for a long time, the school is open to local residents and the kids to learn new craft as there's need place for kid to go now, the cafe which is part of it will also bring much needed space for people to meet up and will also provide opportunities for the locals too. We need investment in the area and I believe this is the start of what is needed here.
