
Location: London Zoo

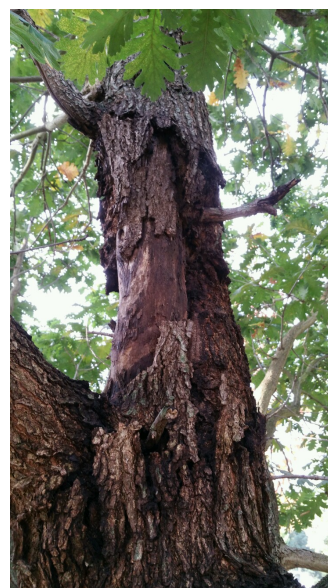

Site: LZ 26d - Car Park (Prince Albert Road)

House/Locn: LZ03502

Species: Quercus sp. (Oak)

Owner: The Royal Parks

Grid Ref:

Inspected: 01/10/2019 at: 08:30

Height: 7-14 metres

Age: Semi-mature

Trunk: 260 mm

Spread: 6 to 9 meters

Features:

Conditions: Signs of bacterial infection
- rapidly advancing canker bark wound at 2 to 2.5 metres affecting 75% of the stem circumference with column of heartwood exposed. damage weakening leader now vulnerable to fracture under wind-loading good physiological condition. reduce whole crown: height by 2 metres and lateral branches by 1 to 1.5 metres. No Oak Processionary Moth observed -

Priority: 2 - High

Inspector: AC

Failure: Probable/Soon

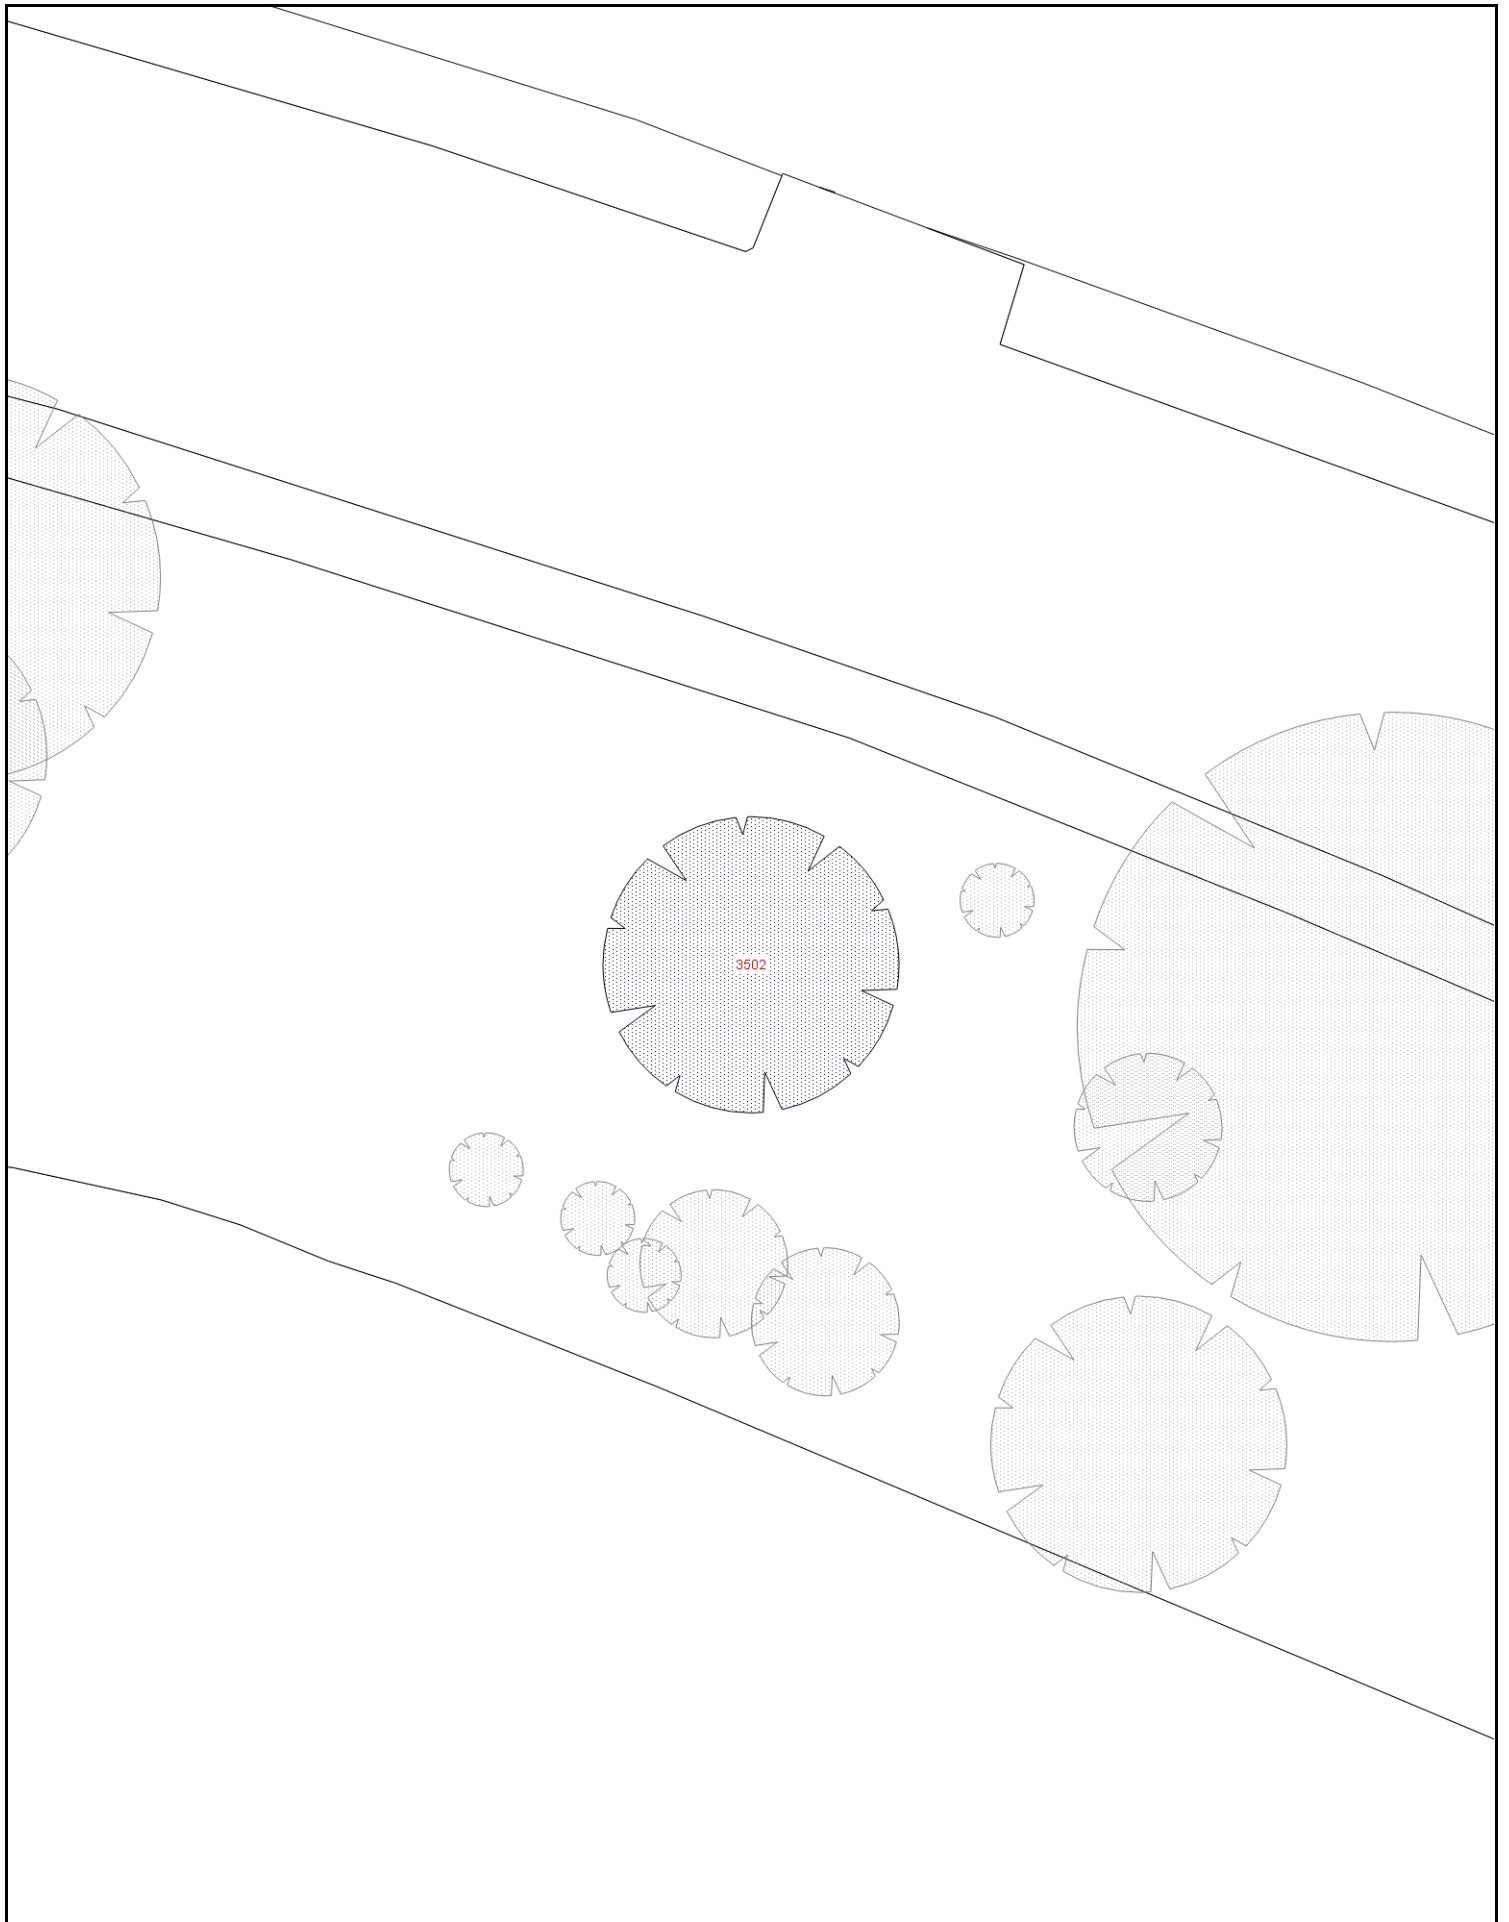

Target: Medium

Impact: Medium 35-10

Authority: Camden

Recommendations: Crown reduction as specified
- reduce whole crown: height by 2 metres and lateral branches by 1 to 1.5 metres.

Comments:

 LET'S WORK FOR WILDLIFE	LZ 26d - Car Park (Prince Albert Road)	Scale	Unknown
		Date	06/11/2019	