

Good morning, Nora

Further to our emails last Summer, we understand that the applicants at 42 Elsworthy Road have added amendments to their demolition and building plans, and submitted further lengthy, professional documents to support this application.

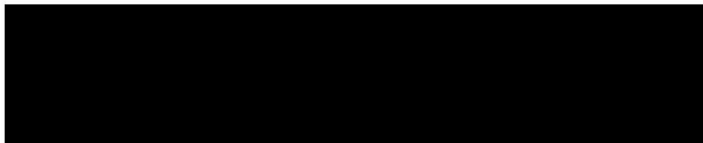

As before, a huge amount of the technical detail is neither approachable or understandable, yet the intention and its affect on our close neighbouring property appear to remain the same.

As immediate neighbours, whose way of life would be severely affected by a) the building works throughout their entirety, and b) the additions and amendments to the courtyard where our kitchen, bathroom and hall currently enjoy daylight and quiet, we would appreciate updates, and an indication of the latest assessments.

We have to date received no updates or indications of opinion to the lengthy objections we filed at the time of the second round application earlier this year, which in many areas omitted and reference or indication of our property that in parts borders only a few feet away. That leaves us feeling uninformed and anxious and we hope to hear from you at the earliest convenience.

Thank you in advance,

Best regards,

Thanks for your email.

I am still waiting for information from the agent in relation to the design of the extension, basement excavation and trees.

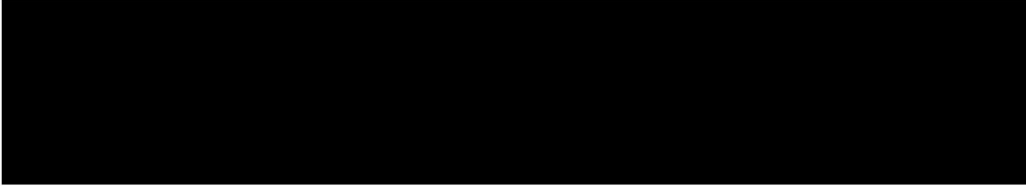

Any new information would be uploaded online.

Best Regards,
Nora

Good morning, Nora

I hope you are well.

Can I enquire whether there are any updates please to this planning application? As neighbours we are keen to know if any progress has been made.

Many thanks in advance

All the best

Lynnette
