While trusting to the committee's oversight and legal role to protect the Regency look and integrity, Camden is fortunate to possess such history. Can additional but tastefully rendered acknowledgement and description of this buojdungs history be provided within the scheme proposed by the owner in the new fencing or on the paving outside (for example as a brass engraved plaque or sinilar). In this way residents and visitors to the Heath will benefit from, appreciate and he informed by these proposed changes.
