Do you intend to submit a planning obligation (a section 106 agreement or a unilateral undertaking) with this appeal? Yes No

(a) That planning permission should be granted for what is alleged in the notice.

(b) That the breach of control alleged in the enforcement notice has not occurred as a matter of fact.

(c) That there has not been a breach of planning control (for example because permission has already been granted, or it is "permitted development").

The facts are set out in the box below

I am writing to inform you that there has been no breach of planning occurring at this address, I can provide yourselves with copy of the tenancy agreements and invite you for an inspection of the premises where you can personally investigate what is going on. Also the only times the flats were let out on a rental shorter than 90 days, where within the permissible yearly allowance, however we do not encourage of our tenants subletting the property during any period of time as this causes inconvenience and damages the units.

How can we proceed with this? However, given that this enforcement notice was submitted without any proof or evidence whatsoever I would like this to be revoked immediately

(d) That, at the time the enforcement notice was issued, it was too late to take enforcement action against the matters stated in the notice.

(e) The notice was not properly served on everyone with an interest in the land.

(f) The steps required to comply with the requirements of the notice are excessive, and lesser steps would overcome the objections.

(g) The time given to comply with the notice is too short. Please state what you consider to be a reasonable compliance period, and why.
