

THE ROTUNDA
42/43 GLOUCESTER
CRESCENT

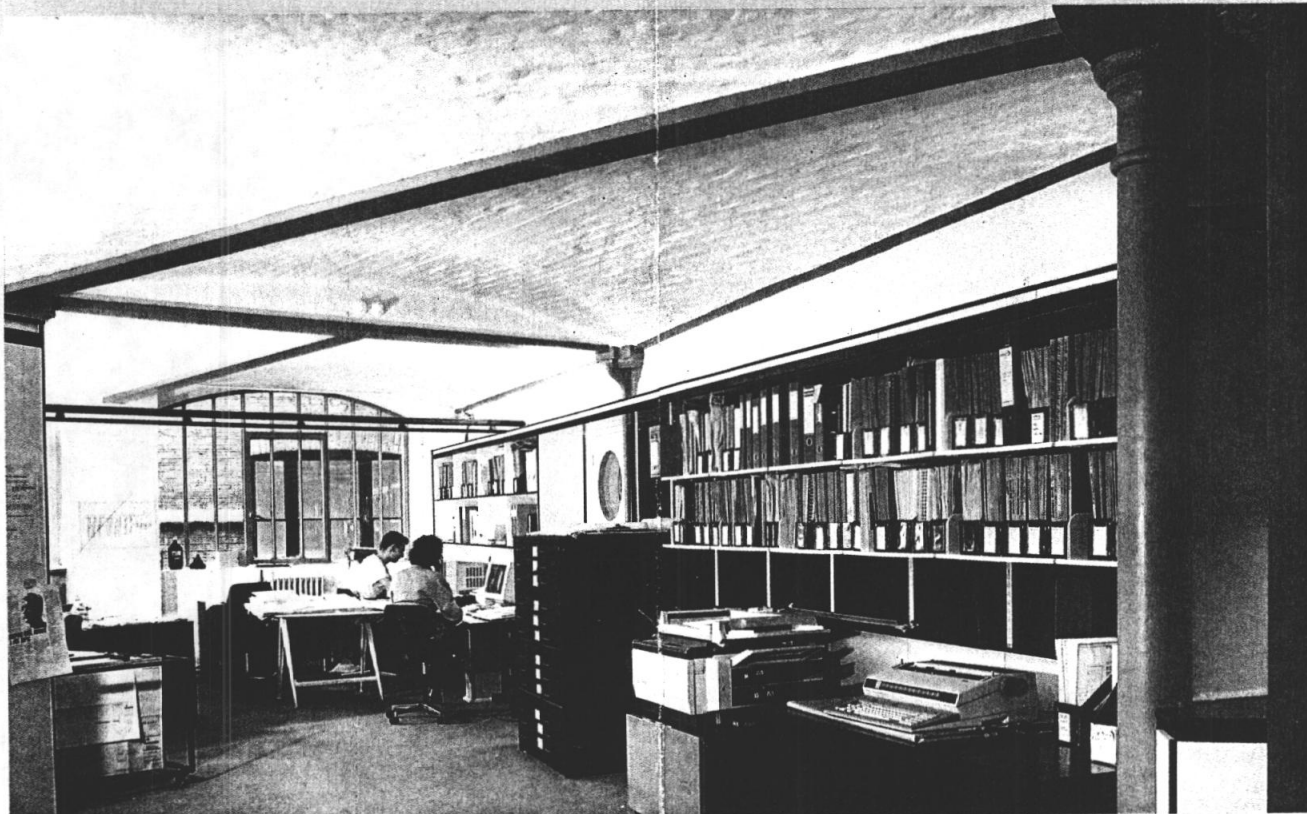

This distinctive Grade II Listed building was originally constructed in 1852 by Thomas and William Piper as a piano factory. The building is of solid construction with brick vaulted ceilings, with each circular floor linking to an annexe by way of a glass clad bridge. Ground and first floors are available. 5,000 sq. ft. per floor.

View from Oval Road

View from Gloucester Crescent

Typical interior showing vaulted ceiling

P29700035 / 1559700042

LONDON BOROUGH OF CAMDEN
TOWN AND COUNCIL PLANNING ACTS
23 JAN 1997
APPROVED
PLANS
ON BEHALF OF THE COUNCIL

LAM. WATSON. WOODS
9755 / 04.