Creating three dwellings is feasible but not sure why a rear infill is necessary as already extensive buildings. Does this involve any basement works or excavation. Is the Summer House an additional home? Will the three proposed dwellings all have individual access. I would like to see more details regarding the other associated works. This is an important architecturally designed building which I hope is retained, especially the facade. Does the plans include parking on the land? as this road is already busy with traffic, especially school run times. Will any trees be felled for the building works.
