

Application No:	Consultees Name:	Received:	Comment:	Response:
2020/0732/T	David Greene	15/02/2020 12:38:18	OBJ	We would suggest option 1 should be refused and that the second option could be approved. Given the current debate about London's pollution and global climate threats every tree must be seen as a tool to help in controlling these issues .. not only that of course they are beautiful objects and contribute to our mental well being and the beauty of this part of London .
2020/0732/T	David Greene	15/02/2020 12:38:01	OBJ	We would suggest option 1 should be refused and that the second option could be approved. Given the current debate about London's pollution and global climate threats every tree must be seen as a tool to help in controlling these issues .. not only that of course they are beautiful objects and contribute to our mental well being and the beauty of this part of London .
2020/0732/T	David Greene	15/02/2020 12:38:20	OBJ	We would suggest option 1 should be refused and that the second option could be approved. Given the current debate about London's pollution and global climate threats every tree must be seen as a tool to help in controlling these issues .. not only that of course they are beautiful objects and contribute to our mental well being and the beauty of this part of London .
2020/0732/T	David Greene	15/02/2020 12:38:22	OBJ	We would suggest option 1 should be refused and that the second option could be approved. Given the current debate about London's pollution and global climate threats every tree must be seen as a tool to help in controlling these issues .. not only that of course they are beautiful objects and contribute to our mental well being and the beauty of this part of London .
2020/0732/T	David Greene	15/02/2020 12:38:39	OBJ	We would suggest option 1 should be refused and that the second option could be approved. Given the current debate about London's pollution and global climate threats every tree must be seen as a tool to help in controlling these issues .. not only that of course they are beautiful objects and contribute to our mental well being and the beauty of this part of London .
2020/0732/T	David Greene	15/02/2020 12:38:56	OBJ	We would suggest option 1 should be refused and that the second option could be approved. Given the current debate about London's pollution and global climate threats every tree must be seen as a tool to help in controlling these issues .. not only that of course they are beautiful objects and contribute to our mental well being and the beauty of this part of London .
2020/0732/T	David Greene	15/02/2020 12:39:13	OBJ	We would suggest option 1 should be refused and that the second option could be approved. Given the current debate about London's pollution and global climate threats every tree must be seen as a tool to help in controlling these issues .. not only that of course they are beautiful objects and contribute to our mental well being and the beauty of this part of London .
2020/0732/T	David Greene	15/02/2020 12:39:16	OBJ	We would suggest option 1 should be refused and that the second option could be approved. Given the current debate about London's pollution and global climate threats every tree must be seen as a tool to help in controlling these issues .. not only that of course they are beautiful objects and contribute to our mental well being and the beauty of this part of London .
2020/0732/T	David Greene	15/02/2020 12:37:44	OBJ	We would suggest option 1 should be refused and that the second option could be approved. Given the current debate about London's pollution and global climate threats every tree must be seen as a tool to help in controlling these issues .. not only that of course they are beautiful objects and contribute to our mental well being and the beauty of this part of London .

Application No:	Consultees Name:	Received:	Comment:	Response:
2020/0732/T	David Greene	15/02/2020 12:37:21	OBJ	We would suggest option 1 should be refused and that the second option could be approved. Given the current debate about London's pollution and global climate threats every tree must be seen as a tool to help in controlling these issues .. not only that of course they are beautiful objects and contribute to our mental well being and the beauty of this part of London .

Total: 16