

4 Design Proposals

4.1 Scheme Overview

The development poposes alterations to existing Edwardian building, the demolition of a 1960s modernist building and its replacement by a residential building comprising of 34 units, including one, two and three bedroom, a basement car park and associated landscape works.

The replacement building seeks to create a new architectural entity that is compatible with the remaining Edwardian extension.

The proposal seeks to emulate the typology of an English country house; comprising of a series of individual buildings, which appear to have developed over time, set with in generous open grounds.
