Hello

I'd just like to ask why a 'fell to the ground' is necessary and whether it would be possible to just trim the branches? The tree has been there since I can remember and I just feel its excessive that a such a beautiful tree is destined be ended like this.

Myself and neighbours and incredibly sad about the situation and was hoping for a less permanent solution. Other trees in the area are trimmed back so please consider doing the same for the tree in the middle of the garden.

With Kind Regards

Maria
