Thanks for the revised plan. Reducing the size and location of the flue is a huge improvement. Why didn't they do it before? I no longer object to it.
Enjoy your maternity leave and welcoming a baby into your life.
Best wishes

Subject: 2019/6350/P - 28 Harley Road - flue

Good Afternoon,

Re: 28 Harley Road, London, NW3 3BN - Installation of boiler flue and vents on the rear elevation and alterations to the roof of the existing summer room.

I write further to your comment on the above application (dated 02/03/2020). The applicant has submitted revised plans with the proposed flue relocated to a lower roofslope at the rear (see attached plan). Would you like to amend your comments? If so, please could you let me know by the end of the week (Friday 1st May) as next week is my last in the office before I go on maternity leave and I'd like to determine how the application will be decided (i.e. delegated powers or Member's Briefing) if possible.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards

Kate Henry
