There are so few public places to visit at that location, why would you turn it into a hostel of all things? Kilburn, especially this part of Kilburn needs good quality venues NOT hostels! I totally disagree with this idea. Why can't we (I'm a local resident) have something decent, a quality pub or as I said a quality restaurant? It's an ill thought out idea, which will in no way benefit the local area, certainly not environmentally or economically. Why are you downgrading the area and not uplifting it?
