Can you tell me if this objection was received as it is not posted on the Camden website. Also I know that the doctor was seeing patients here yesterday 4 June and I'm not sure that he has received planning permission.

I am a tenant in this building which is occupied by many maybe 30 businesses. I don't think it is appropriate for a doctors practice to be based there. There is no separate waiting area and I believe visitors in particular but also other tenants might be exposed to infection, viruses etc. Also given the notice has gone up during the lockdown due to Covid 19 very few other tenants will have seen the notice. I live locally.
