My husband and I live at 3 KemplayRoad,which overlooks the back gardens 7 and 9 Pilgrims lane,the site of the proposal,We have lived here for 35 years and love the historic side of Hampstead,especially Rosslyn Hill chapel and the surrounding area which have remainedmostly the same for hundreds of years.We srongly feel there has been enough developement in the immediate area and thatthe historic fabric of Cossey cottage and Sydney house should not be altered

Forthe above reasons ,we strongly hope that the Council will consider our objections to the proposed works at number 9 Pilgrims lane

Sincerely
Helene Dubinsky
