

Prevent Urbanisation of Hampstead Heath and Millfield Lane

To: Camden Council

Reject Planning Application 2018/3672/P to redevelop 55 Fitzroy Park with five houses, two fronting directly on to Hampstead Heath.

Why is this important?

Hampstead Heath is a treasured open space in London, free for all to enjoy. Camden Council is currently considering plans for a major property development bordering the Heath which would replace one existing house and annexe with five luxury homes, all with basements.

The tranquil character and ecology of Millfield Lane will be irreparably damaged by the presence of the new houses, with the two largest fronting directly on to the lane immediately opposite the Bird Sanctuary Pond. This historic tree-lined path, originally known as Nightingale Lane, lies on the eastern edge of the Heath. It has inspired artists and poets, including Keats and Coleridge, for more than two centuries.

Hampstead Heath is a haven for wildlife and home to kingfishers, tawny owls, sparrowhawks, herons and tree-creepers. The loss of habitat - including nearly ninety trees (some subject to protection orders) - will impact on birds, amphibians, bats, insects and hedgehogs. Equally destructive will be the heavy engineering and traffic involved in construction, and the noise, light and heat generated by the new households.

Millfield Lane is a year-round pedestrian thoroughfare and, during the winter months, the sole access route to the Kenwood Ladies' Pond. Up to three of the houses will have right-of-way over the road, radically increasing vehicle movements and hazard to thousands of walkers, joggers, swimmers, children and dogs who use it regularly.

In 2015, an alliance of local community groups and more than 4,000 individuals successfully petitioned Camden to refuse an application for overdevelopment of another property on Millfield Lane, The Water House. We call on Camden Council to reject this new application because of the irrevocable harm it will cause to Hampstead Heath, Millfield Lane and the Bird Sanctuary Pond
