"The proposed garden room design put forward picks up on the 'essence' of the existing house. The design and choice of materials, reclaimed yellow stock brick and timber painted windows, doors, cornice and fascia are considered acceptable and appropriate for this setting. However it would be greater in overall scale and bulk as the garden room at adjoining property no 7 Downshire Hill (2012/5579/P) and should be reduced in overall size, it should be no larger than the adjoining garden room."
