2020/3131/L	Geoff Wood	30/08/2020 18:00:15	SUPPRT	I live at Flat3, 1A Monmouth Street which is at the junction of Neal Street and Monmouth Street. Three of my living room windows and a bedroom window directly overlook Number 80 Neal Street. I fully support painting these premises in blue. The particular shade of blue is very attractive giving a calming Mediterranean feeling. The colour is a very significant improvement on the previous bland white. White always gets dirty quickly in central London and just looks messy. Many buildings in the Seven Dials area are painted different colours so the blue is consistent with the area and enhances the area. In fact the blue is much more attractive than the colours some other buildings have been painted. I am very pleased with the blue and would be disappointed were it to become (quickly dirty) white again. Geoff Wood

2020/3131/L	Ronald Corp	02/09/2020 13:40:20	SUPPRT	I am very happy with the new paintwork, it's bright and complements the dark green of 78 Neal Street.
