2020/3534/P	Nicholas Bromley	07/10/2020 20:36:13	COMMNT	We have not had any kind of structural survey of the party wall. These Victorian buildings are often badly built and not as robust as they should be. I am concerned about the effects of erecting this two storey extension. It has not proved possible to engage the applicant in a discussion of these issues.
