| 2020/3881/P | Patricia Wager | 08/10/2020 11:00:38 | PETITNSUP P | The design of the proposed redevelopment of Belgrove House is inappropriate and lacks integrity. It sticks out like a sore thumb in the surrounding area, a monstrous eyesore which dominates the historic surroundings. It is too high and too 'glassy' and too obtrusive and adds nothing to the townscape in this area. The stated 'public benefits' do not outweigh the harm that will be wrought if this development goes ahead. If it is given planning permission, it will no doubt open the way for further destruction of the surrounding area with further inappropriate buildings destroying this conservation area which should merit protection for future generations. I trust that commonsense will prevail. |
