

Dear Ms Abel,

Your TV Licence has been renewed automatically. Thanks for paying by monthly Direct Debit.

You're now covered to watch or record live TV programmes on any channel, and to download or watch BBC programmes on iPlayer. This applies to any device you use.

What happens now?

We'll take payments on or within three working days of the dates shown. You don't need to do anything now, other than check that the bank details below are correct.

How payments work.

- You'll continue to pay for this licence as listed below. We'll take payments from this account:

Account name: Abel

Sort code: 20-71-74

Account number: *9594

- You'll pay for your next licence over 12 months. You'll make six payments before your licence starts and six after. We'll take the first payment of £12.43 on 1 March 2018, followed by monthly payments of £12.37 on your chosen payment date until further notice.

Manage your licence online.

Go to tvlicensing.co.uk/myupdate where you can:

- Transfer your licence if you move
- Update your bank account details or payment date
- View or download your current licence and payment plan

You can also join the 6.9 million people who've chosen to go paperless, and get your next licence by email.

That's it for now. You're all sorted, as long as the payments continue to be made. If your payments don't go through, your TV Licence may be cancelled.

Yours sincerely,

Jackie Garswood
