2020/4986/P	Esther Leslie	19/12/2020 10:44:01	OBJ	This was a shocking violation of an historic pub frontage. Replaced with bland glass, it has detracted from the characterful aspect of Chalton Street, which residents are desperately trying to retain and improve. Heritage features are key to making it attractive again. Objections were made at a point when the frontage could still have been retained, but we're ignored. Something is wrong with the planning process. An equivalent or more attractive frontage should be restored.
