2020/5605/A	Bartholomew Estate and Kenilsh Town CAAC	21/01/2021 12:27:14	COMMENT	we strongly object to this proposal for both Neon signs at side and front of the building and a board on the pavement and chalkboards on either side of the door. This side of the building is in Patshull Road and is therefor in Bartholomew Estate and kentish town CAAC. The proposed neon sigs will be in and be seen seen from the CAAC signage "should be appropriate for the conservation area..... and external signage should not be illuminated " BE36 Conservation Area statement. Visually they are inappropriate for the area. Concerning the free standing boards these will be a danger to every one , add clutter to the , pavement, look unsightly, especially when wind causes them to fall over , especially as this is a busy corner and a place where people wait to cross the road. We therefor wish that both these applications be refused . We do not believe that this building is currently registered as a restaurant.
