Dear Sir,

re: 2020/6007/P
7th February 2021

I am illiterate in building matters, but I wish to object to the application to allow additional extractor pipes and similar alterations to 11 Frognal Parade which constitutes part of the ground floor of the residential block 1 - 6 Frognal Court.

Contrary to the applicant's bold statement according to which 11 Frognal Parade is a hot food takeaway, please note that this is entirely incorrect. The last set of occupants were accountants and, according to my memory, there has never been a hot food takeaway at this venue.

The statement of the applicant may be an error or a deliberate misrepresentation. Either way, the applicant/application cannot be trusted.

Ours is a residential block: a hot food takeaway could cause great many problems for the residents such as inevitable smell, inevitable rubbish on the pavement and/or at the back of the block, and people gathering on the narrow pavement and/or at the back of the block.

Please note my opposition to the application;

Yours sincerely:
Dr Agnes Kory (PhD, Musicology)
