2021/0598/P	Amanda Evans	27/04/2021 22:37:43	OBJ	Are there no regulations about siting telecoms equipment within close proximity to personal outdoor space? Balconies on the top floor will be virtually aligned with the antennae - with no parapets or shielding between. If such installations cannot be placed on rooftops where residents have access to sit, then how is the situation at Crestview radically different? The levels of stress and anxiety caused to residents by this application are already considerable. We must be allowed to enjoy the peace and safety of our homes without the threat of such an intrusion. The application should be refused.
