Dear Camden Council,

Thanks for inviting comments regarding the proposed felling of the laburnum tree in the back garden of Pembroke, Antrim Road.

I live in a flat at the back 119 Haverstock Hill which overlooks some of the gardens on Antrim Road. Slowly but surely it seems the trees are being cleared either for extensions or additional features or space. When will it stop? I value the little nature there is left to see from my flat.

I object to the proposal.

Best,

Jonathan Spottiswoode
