I have recently been informed that there is a proposal to site a tall 5 G mast Mast and cabinets on the pavement next to Primrose Hill.

Having grown up beside there in Albert Terrace and lived there for many years I was surprised and shocked to hear this. It is such a beautiful area for people living in London to go and get away from the traffic and noise and relax. This would be an eyesore which would spoil the atmosphere and look of the area so please could you rethink and site this in a more suitable place, we can't let technology take over the last places of beauty in London.

Many thanks
