dear Mr Young,

I am appalled to have learnt of your planning application for an 18 meter mast on the edge of Primrose Hill which is a conservation area. It is one of the most beautiful parts of this great city of London. What on earth can you be thinking of? I am sure that there is a financial incentive but do you not think that morally this would be an appalling travesty of your duties as a planning officer. Please think again. I shall be writing to Sir Keir Starmer

Yours sincerely

Dr Judith du Vivier
