Dear mr Dempsey,

Thank you for your feedback on the plan.

I'm afraid the additions made to the plan are not substantial and only superficial. All Our comments and request to deny the plan still stand.

In regards to the new specifications, these are very minor cosmetic remedies to a substantial change of the building decor which is not in line with the rest of the aesthetic of the buildings facing internal gardens and the back of households with a visual on the roof terrace proposed.

We vehemently oppose the plan. We will loose peace, property value and decor should the plan go ahead.

Best wishes,
Lucia

To whom it may concern.

I am e-mailing you as you have made comment on a planning application ref: 2021/0971/P.

1 Gladys Road
London
NW6 2PU

"Creation of rear roof terrace at 2nd floor level, with new French doors and balustrade."

The applicant has responded to comments made by adjusting their proposal. Please see the revised plans attached.

I would be grateful if you could confirm if you have any further comments to make? Should you wish to uphold or withdraw any prior comment, please advise?

I would like to request any further responses within the next 2 weeks.

If I do not hear from you, your existing comment will be given due consideration when making any recommendation to approve or refuse the revised scheme.

Should you have any queries, please let me know? Apologies in advance as I know my phone line is quite poor at the moment.

Kind regards,
Matthew
