

Dear Jonathan

I wish to associate myself with comments submitted on the above application from GARA, noting that the developer has made some welcome revisions to the previous application.

However I still wish to make a formal objection. This new application still constitutes over development of a small site much of which is currently the garden of no1 Hillfield Rd, and it is too close to South Mansions.

Yours sincerely

Flick Rea (now writing in a personal capacity!!)