Dear Enya Fogarty,

Re Elim Mansions 15 Lyndhurst Gardens London NW3 3BT Planning Application – 2021/2481/P

I write to confirm that I am the registered proprietor of one of the garages at Elim Mansions 15 Lyndhurst Gardens London NW3 3BT. Claire Weldon approached me in regards to a planning application to convert the garages into workspaces I adamantly refused to be a party to this application and did not support it at all. I did not support the proposal to change the garages into workspaces. I certainly did not agree to such an application in respect of my garage. I vehemently oppose this planning application for the following reasons;

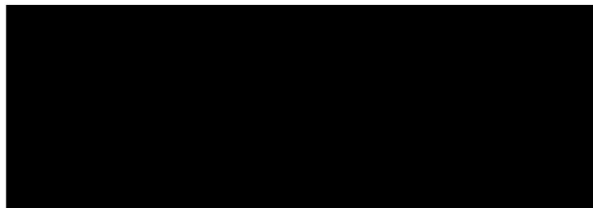

1. It will inhibit the use of the garden at the back of the garages by having workspaces with windows looking out onto the garden; it is an invasion of privacy of the garden space,
2. The entrance to my flat runs alongside the garages,
3. If workspaces are created I have no control over;
 - 3.1. who will use those garages / workspaces, i.e. the tenants who may allow friends and family to use those workspaces
 - 3.2. the hours that those workspaces will be used
 - 3.3. or the noise that they will generate.

Accordingly, I am not a party to this application, I am one of the owners to the property and I do not support it.

Please acknowledge receipt.

Yours Sincerely,

Roger Gherson
