Work Environment:

Task priorities will be determined by the Head of Service and are contained within the annual service plan but a high level of initiative and skill is expected in order for the post holder to manage their own workload effectively. The post demands a high level of performance management, information governance and analysis skills and knowledge; a requirement to model the Camden ways of working and behaviours and ability to adapt to changes due to service needs, which are continuously evolving, in order to meet the demands of the service and users.

The post holder is expected to attend training and development courses in order to maintain and enhance their skills and knowledge.

The post is office based in an open plan environment and the role holder will be expected to work at other sites from time to time to share performance information with colleagues and or to gather service activity information as required.

There are no routine physical demands of the job that are beyond normal experience of day-to-day office tasks (e.g. minor lifting and handling such as small packages boxes within recognised health and safety limits).

People Management Responsibilities:

The post holder will report to the Head of Quality Assurance.

The post holder will receive supervision by their immediate line manager, including a review of performance as part of the corporate managing individual performance system.

This post will be expected to build and maintain good working relationships with users, customers, members and colleagues both within and outside the service.

Relationships:

Heads of services, Service managers and team Managers across CSSW and front line social workers, the QA unit, CSCP, Education colleagues, strategy and development, corporate.

Over to you

We're ready to welcome your ideas, your views, and your rebellious spirit. Help us redefine how we're supporting people, and we'll redefine what a career can be. If that sounds good to you, we'd love to talk

Diversity & Inclusion

At Camden, we value and celebrate difference and encourage diversity in all respects. Our diverse workforce ensures we represent our communities to the best of our ability and enables us to make better decisions. Because of this, we particularly welcome applications from Black, Asian and those of other non-white ethnicities, those who identify as LGBT+, neurodiverse and disabled people.

Agile working

At Camden we view work as an activity, not a place. We focus on performance, not presenteeism. We create trusting relationships, we embrace innovation rather than bureaucracy and we value people. Collaboration is the Camden way, silo working isn't.

At Camden we are proud to be one of Hire Me My Way's inaugural campaign supporters. Hire Me My Way is a national campaign led by Timewise, designed to increase the volume of good quality jobs that can be worked flexibly in the UK (www.HireMeMyWay.org.uk). Hire Me My Way aims to treble the number of available good quality flexible jobs to 1 million by 2020.

Asking for Adjustments

Camden is committed to making our recruitment practices barrier-free and as accessible as possible for everyone.
