2021/3105/P	Helen Style	09/11/2021 16:18:13	SUPPRT	I am writing in support of the Eruv, which even though may be servicing few users, allows inclusivity by giving religious Jews the ability to travel to synagogue by wheelchair, pram, electric scooter thus allowing them to participate in both the religious and social elements of their community on the Sabbath.
2021/3105/P	Daniel J Shaw	09/11/2021 14:56:12	SUPPRT	Fully in favour of this application. The erection of 13 poles with clear wire between is inconspicuous but crucially supports Jewish observance of the Sabbath. In doing so it will significantly strengthen the cultural life and diversity of the Borough.
2021/3105/P	neil cohe	09/11/2021 18:04:05	COMMNT	If there was an eruv it would enable observant families with young children to be able go out on Fridays and Saturdays to attend synagogue, not just for praying but also for the social aspect of leisure activities Similarly for people in wheelchairs Where there is an eruv already in place it hasn't changed the demographic of the type of person living there to take advantage of the benefit of this relaxation area
