Camden Way Category 3

It is for use during recruitment, setting objectives as part of the performance management process and other people management purposes. It does not form part of an employee's contract of employment.

The Supporting People Directorate is responsible for the outcomes and support for children, young people, adults and families in need. The directorate has a strong focus on intervening early to prevent problems escalating as well as contributing to prevention. Within the directorate, the Early Intervention and Prevention Division (EIP) comprises of the following services: Integrated Early Years' Service (IEYS), Integrated Youth Support Service (IYSS), Family Support and Complex families, SEN and Educational Psychology and the Education Welfare Service

Early Help Coordinators form part of the Early Help Community and Practice Service within Family Support and Complex Families. Early Help Coordinators are required to work in co-operation with the MASH (multi agency safeguarding hub) within the Children and Families Contact team to process all incoming referrals, matching need to service, identifying Lead Professionals if appropriate and ensure appropriate Early Help Services are in place for families.

Resilient Families Programme

The Resilient Families programme is the driver for the transformation and further development of services providing early help for families with children (0-19* years) in Camden. Our ways of working:

- i. Consistent focus on outcomes and how they are measured
- ii. Consistent approach to building resilience in families across all levels of need
- iii. Streamlined and clear access to all services within the Early Help Offer
- iv. Strengthened early help delivery within universal services
- v. Improved integrated working which focuses on the whole family

- vi. Consistent focus on reflective practice and evidence based interventions.

Role Purpose

- Early Help Coordinators process, investigate and analyze incoming referrals through the Children and Families Contact Service comprehensively matching need to service, across the Early Help offer in Camden
- Early Help Coordinators will offer information, advice and guidance to families and professionals regarding Early Help Services to prevent issues escalating and requiring statutory involvement
- Early Help Coordinators will lead and coordinate high quality, evidence based packages of support across the universal and targeted multi agency Early Help offer in Camden
- Early Help Coordinators will develop Camden's partnership working across universal Early Help Services [particularly education, health, housing & VCS], providing professional support with a focus on case consultations, developing practitioner confidence and the earlier identification of families in need of early help.

Example outcomes or objectives that this role will deliver:

1. High quality Information, Advice and Guidance (IAG) across the Early Help Offer in Camden to children, families and professionals in order to prevent problems escalating for families
2. Reduction of referrals received by the Children and Families Contact Service, leading to reduction in social work assessments and more appropriate incoming referrals (less Blue and Green rag rated referrals)
3. The development and coordination of high quality packages of support tailored to the individual family need in partnership with universal partners such as education, health and VCS.
4. Professional leadership, training and support to Universal Early Help Services to ensure high quality & consistency of delivery across the early help offer and the promotion of Early Help Assessments, Team Around the Family and Lead Professional as ways of working.
5. Earlier identification of children and families needing support through better data analysis and targeting of services
6. Development of a strong early help community/partnership embedding resilient families program ways of working and introducing forums for case consultations, complex case discussions, EH drop ins/clinics and other innovative ways of working.

Camden Way Five Ways of Working

In order to continue delivering for the people of Camden in the face of ever increasing financial pressure, we need to transform the way we do things. We call this the Camden Way. The Camden Way is a key part of our transformation strategy often referred to as the transformation triangle which links the Camden Plan, the Camden Way and the Financial Strategy together.

The Camden Way illustrates the approach that should underpin everything we do through five ways of working:

- Deliver for the people of Camden
- Work as one team
- Take pride in getting it right
- Find better ways
- Take personal responsibility
