Dear Patrick

Please note that we have been instructed to raise an objection to the above application. We will also be making representations on the materiality of the changes sought and the appropriateness of using s96A to secure those changes.

Our substantive objection will be provided before the target determination date of 9 December 2021. On this basis please refrain from determining the application in advance of the target date, before you have had the opportunity to fully consider the issues we will raise.

Regards

Amanda
