No report from Treeartistry, the named Agent has been submitted. It doesn't appear that this Agent is a recognised company of any kind, and no tree surgeon or similar expert by the name of Treeartistry or Nick Camm can be found either. There may be good reason to fell this mature tree, particularly given the photograph indicates it is being swamped by ivy due to lack of maintenance, but can this please be done with proper authority in order to enforce good tree management in the conservation area?
