

| Application No: | Consultees Name: | Received:    | Comment: | Response:  |
|------------------------|-------------------------|---------------------|-----------------|---|
| 2021/3225/P            | Catherine Lucas         | 07/01/2022 21:48:06 | OBJ             | The high rise buildings are totally out of character with the characterful North London streetscape. Because they are so huge and prominent from a number of locations they will be a jarring eye-sore that will cause unhappiness to the majority of Kentish Town residents on an unavoidable, daily basis. The impact of the view of the Heath should not be underestimated either, given the mental health benefits of green spaces in a crowded city, especially in recent years. The buildings make the Heath lower playing fields and the Lissenden Estate feel overshadowed and claustrophobic. |

---